My vision for NEW: PATHS: NEW: PATHS has gained much recognition in our profession. We served the Federal government creating, per their request, the TANF Best Practice Handbook, this was a nationwide collaboration. We have been recognized as a valuable asset to our profession bringing together all aspects of the Human/Social Service agencies and all participating employees with our trailer of PATHS and the programs throughout the country for the betterment of our societies.

A little bit about me: I am a G-Ma of 11 month old twin grandsons, Hayden and Bryson, 12/31/08. They are beautiful. Yes I am proud, I waited 32 years. There is nothing more to say.....OH! I am proud to be associated with NEW: PATHS. This association combines my love for people, travel, my job, and education all at the same time.
